Snowflake Crash May Involve B. C. Cabinet Ministers

Investment Activities of Members of Government, Playing the Mining Market, Likely to Come Up Before Legislature; McKenzie Firm for Publication of All Facts to Protect Investing Public.

Investment of cabinet ministers in British Columbia mining stock may come up for review at the coming session of the Legislature, it was learned today.

This development has come about as a result of happenings during the last week in the stock of the Snowflake mine, in which cabinet ministers and some private members of the Legislature are reported to have been interested.

Early in October a big boom was worked up in Snowflake stock, which was boosted to $135 a share in Vancouver. The boom was aided by the report that cabinet ministers and private members were in on the mine.

News also emanated from the Parliament Buildings about a road being built into the Snowflake mine.

During the last week the stock has broken down to 50 cents a share, involving large financial losses to a multitude of small investors. This break has followed the investigation made by engineers of the Department of Mines into conditions at the Snowflake mine.

Since last Monday shareholders and brokers of Vancouver and Victoria have been besieging Hon. W. A. McKenzie, Minister of Mines and his department for information on the mine. Mr. McKenzie has announced that the full report will be issued this week.

TO REPORT ON LIQUOR SALES

New Westminster Police Commission Acts on Attorney-General's Order

New Westminster, Feb. 5.—The police commission here, composed of Mayor A. W. Gray, John Reid and M. J. Phillips, met today in private and discussed an order received from Attorney-General Pooley to clean up the liquor situation.

Mayor Gray announced at the close of the meeting that it had been adjourned until tomorrow morning and that in the meantime Chief of Police G. T. Bradshaw would prepare a report on the liquor situation. The mayor added the commission would report the result of the meeting to the Attorney-General and would not announce it here.

All of the places that were allegedly selling liquor illegally are reported closed tight today, and in at least one instance the stock of liquor is said to have been removed.

WILL REORGANIZE HIS CABINET

H. H. HERTZOG
Premier of South Africa

Pretoria, S.A., Nov. 5 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).—After a prolonged meeting the Nationalist-Labor Coalition Cabinet of the Union of South Africa, led by Premier J. B. Hertzog, today decided to reorganize.

The cabinet will be re-constructed without Hon. W. B. Madley, Labor Minister of Public Works and Telegraphs, who has failed to comply with the Premier's request that he resign.

Mr. Madley's action in dealing with the postal workers through the Native Workers' Union was frowned upon by the Premier.

AEROPLANE MAKES 319.5 MILES HOUR

Calshot, Eng., Nov. 5.—Lieut. Darcy Greig, attempting to establish a new aeroplanes speed world record here yesterday afternoon, attained 319.5 miles an hour, which is 95 of a mile more than the present record held by the Italian Bernardi. International regulations, however, call for a new record exceeding the present one by five miles an hour, therefore Greig's achievement yesterday will not be recognized as a new record.

It is expected Greig will make a further attempt to capture the honor.

British Cruiser Was In Collision With Steamship

Liverpool, Nov. 5.—The new British cruiser London and the White Star liner Runic were in collision last night off Greenock.

The Runic arrived today damaged above the waterline. The cruiser, which was launched only last year, was damaged about the stern above the waterline.

Collyer and Companion Lose Lives When Plane Hits Side of Mountain In Arizona

VICTIM OF CRASH OF SPEED PLANE

LATE CAPT. C. B. D. COLLYER

renowned United States flier who lost his life Saturday night when the plane in which he and Harry Tucker, the owner, were attempting to create a non-stop flight record west-to-east across the United States, crashed into a mountain side near Prescott, Arizona.

Collyer was known locally through his visit here with John Henry Mears in July last when the two started the last lap of their record-breaking trip around the world from the B.C. Airways aerodrome at Lansdowne Road.

The dog in the picture is "Tailwind," the mascot which Mears and Collyer carried with them on their famous flight.

Pilot Who Gained Fame By Record Round-the-world Journey and Harry Tucker Victims of Crash In Darkness While Attempting to Make Speed Record Flight From Los Angeles to New York.

COLLYER'S DEATH REGRETTED HERE

Aviator Killed Saturday in Arizona Visited Victoria During World Journey

Capt. C. B. D. Collyer, who with Harry Tucker was killed in an aeroplane crash in Arizona Saturday night, was an aviator of international fame, the feat which brought him most attention among Victorians being his record-making journey around the world in company with John Henry Mears, during which they visited this city for a few hours. Officials of the B.C. Airways, who met him and discussed his trip with him here in July last, to-day expressed deep regret at his passing.

Collyer was a flier who was at all times attentive to detail and scrupulously accurate, and the success of the round-the-world flight was in a great measure due to his planning and performance. The plane, after being carried from New York across the Atlantic Ocean in a liner, was flown directly across Europe and Asia in hops extending in length from 600 to 1,000 miles.

The steady nerve of the pilot and his years of training on air mail routes in the United States served him in good stead on that trip and time again he brought the plane down and took off under trying conditions with perfect precision and no mishaps.

FOOT OF HERE

After crossing the Pacific aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia, the plane was drawn through the streets of Victoria to the aerodrome.

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 5.—A famed triumvirate of the air—two noted air speedsters and a fleet little champion of the upper regions—has written its last entry in pages of aviation history in a bold record challenge which ended abruptly against a sheer Arizona mountain cliff.

Death penned the final report of the courageous attempt of Captain C. B. D. Collyer to flash to a new west-to-east United States nonstop record in the trim Yankee Doodle, with Harry Tucker, the plane's owner, riding as a passenger.

The broken bodies of the two men, Collyer, a co-holder of the around-the-world travel record, and Tucker, a recent holder with his little whippet of both east-west and west-east transcontinental records, were brought into Prescott on pack burros today.

Letters in their pockets identified them.

NOTHING SALVAGED

Nothing was left to salvage, indeed hardly enough was left to identify the Yankee Doodle which thundered into the side of Crook Canyon, twenty-three miles south of here, Saturday night at great speed during a rain storm. Collyer and Tucker apparently died instantly, though there was evidence they had made a last moment effort to use their parachutes to desert their prized aircraft. Their parachutes were open, but landing flares had been released, leading to the supposition they were ready to land and to bring the Yankee Doodle down to an undamaged landing.

F. B. Tomlinson, manager of the Storm Cloud Mines, said he had heard the plane come down through the canyon, spluttering as if the motor was failing, and that it had scraped the tree tops for a distance, it crashed. He said a loud explosion immediately followed.

People of U.S. Make Ready To Vote To-morrow

35,000,000 TO VOTE IN U.S.

Expected Total Marking Ballots To-morrow Will Set Record

New York, Nov. 5.—Estimates of the total vote in the elections in the United States to-morrow run about 35,000,000. If that is the figure it will set a new record. The total number of registered voters is approximately 43,000,000. The total vote in 1924 was 29,000,000.

The elections at a glance:
For-election:
A President and Vice-president.
Thirty-seven United States Senators in thirty-three states. Candidates number 122, of whom two are women.
Four hundred and fifty-three members of the House of Representatives. Candidates number 930, of whom eighteen are women. Members seeking re-election, total 388.
STATE ELECTIONS
Thirty-four state governors. Candidates number 124. Seeking re-election, 18. One candidate has no opposition.
Numerous lieutenant-governors, members of state administrations, state judges and state officials.
In twenty-four states referenda on various questions.
Number of polling districts, 117,000.
Polls will close in different states at different hours, varying between 3 p.m. in rural polls to 8 p.m. in urban polls, both standard time.
In New York City the polls will be open from 6 till 6.

Washington, Nov. 5.—In quieter mood after weeks of agitation and uncertainty, the United States is taking final counsel to-day over its choice of new leadership in tomorrow's general election.

The untangling of the complex impulses of class, race and religion remains for the more orderly process of the ballot box.

The final words of the nationwide debate fall to the two men upon whom their responsibilities have rested most heavily. From his home at Palo Alto, California, after his trip across the continent, from Washington, Herbert Hoover, Republican candidate for the Presidency, will speak over the radio to-night to the nation's 43,000,000 voters. Two such addresses were decided on by Governor Smith, Democratic candidate—a noonday talk to-day to the farm country, and a vaudeville to-night, both delivered from a radio station in New York City.

Predictions continued to point to inch-by-inch struggles for the East, the border and the states of the farm country and the Far West.

The issues of this national contest remain, at the end of the campaign, a patchwork of striking contradictions.

CHIEF QUESTIONS

Among the chief issues are:
Prohibition—This issue is credited by leaders of both parties with having turned many voters out of their normal channels. Governor Smith's modification plan, upon which he has centred increasing emphasis in recent weeks, has been persistently attacked by prominent Republicans and by many ministers of the Gospel and was described by Mr. Hoover himself as tending toward state socialism.

CANDIDATES SCARCE FOR NOMINATION

Plunkett Only Man Seeking Conservative Endorsement Here so Far

F. C. Elliott, as Victoria Conservative Association president, at noon today had completed all arrangements for to-night's Conservative nominating convention to choose a candidate to represent the organization at the Liberal-Conservative Federal by-election here on December 6, to fill the seat vacated by Hon. A. F. Toulme, now Premier of British Columbia.

Members of Mr. Elliott's organization, however, upon whom rests the duty of bringing out suitable persons for nomination, had not completed their work and were still scouring the city for possible candidates.

Early this afternoon there was only one candidate in the field for the Conservative nomination. He is D. B. Plunkett, a former Conservative president, and a popular leader of party activities here for years.

ELLIOTT OUT

Mr. Elliott definitely announced at noon that he would not be a candidate for nomination.

Lindley Crease, K.C., who was also interviewed by the organization, announced that he was not in a position to accept nomination.

James Beatty, M.P.P., announced that he was not entering the fight as he was going to give all his attention to provincial affairs.

W. J. Bowser, former Premier of British Columbia, announced that he was not running as the climate at Ottawa does not agree with him.

ONLY ONE IN FIELD

"There is a lot of talk and work being done to bring out nominees, but at the moment there is no one in the field but Mr. Plunkett," Mr. Elliott announced this afternoon.

One faction of the association, who have been at enmity with Mr. Plunkett and have been trying to prevent his nomination, said this afternoon that they still had hopes of heading him off by bringing out someone else.

POLICE INQUIRY HELD IN LONDON

Sergeant Dismissed; Constable Suspended While Bribery Charges Heard

London, Nov. 5.—Sensational developments are looked for from an investigation Scotland Yard detectives are making following allegations of bribery and corruption made against the police of a certain west end division in London.

The inquiry has been going on for some time in the utmost secrecy, only specially selected officers being engaged. Signs of these officers in many cases do not know the full nature of the work they are undertaking. A mass of amazing information regarding the operations of certain people in the west end of London has come into the possession of the authorities and is to be acted upon.

CONSTABLE SUSPENDED

A uniformed police constable of the west end was suspended from duty last Friday and ordered to report to the disciplinary board of Scotland Yard to-day to explain certain grave charges brought against him.

The inquiry has not yet been completed. Scores of persons have been interviewed and questioned, many policemen from the west end having spent several hours at Scotland Yard, in most cases making voluntary statements regarding the allegations.

The suspension of the constable followed the dismissal of a sergeant of the Vine Street station for failing to account sufficiently for the origin of large sums of money in his possession and for associating with undesirable characters.

BROWN INVITES CANDIDATES TO SPEAK WITH HIM

All candidates for civic office were invited by Alderman P. R. Brown, Mayorality candidate, to speak with him at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium on the evening of December 12, the eve of the municipal election, and discuss Victoria's affairs.

Mr. Brown's invitation is extended to candidates for the Mayorality, the City Council, School Board and Police Commission. As a resident of an outside municipality, disinterested in the election result, Capt. George McGregor of Saanich, has been invited by Mr. Brown to announce further plans for his campaign during the next few days.

DANGER FROM STORM PASSES

Having brushed the northwest coast of the island, causing only a few minor squalls in the Victoria area, the big Pacific storm reported last week has passed this region and no heavy winds may be expected in the near future, according to the Dominion Meteorological Observatory.

Far out on the ocean the storm is still raging, however, F. Naples Denison, Observatory Superintendent, said this morning. Barometer readings of below 29.00 are reported in several sections and heavy gales are still blowing across the trans-Pacific steamer route.

Rough seas were reported Saturday night at Estevan and Prince Rupert as the tail of the storm swept past the coast northward, but no damage was done.

HOTEL WORK TO BE COMPLETED BY DECEMBER 15

Grill and Lounge to Be Opened With Special Features Wednesday

Remodeling of the Empress Hotel at a cost of approximately $100,000 is now practically complete. The handsomely renovated grill room on the ground floor, which will compare with the most modern in existence, and the new lounge, which takes up the space formerly occupied by the billiard room, will be opened on Wednesday. It was announced to-day by Herbert Wilson, manager.

The north wing of the hotel is being remodelled at a cost of $55,000, and this phase of the contract, it is stated by David W. Burnett, general contractor, will be completed by December 15 and made available for the Christmas season's business.

MANY NEW BATHROOMS

In the north wing fifty-seven new bathrooms are being installed, ten special suites are being completely remodelled and three new elevators, two passenger and one service, are being installed.

Window curtain boxes are being fitted throughout the hotel at a cost of $4,000 and luxurious new furnishings and apartments. The main rotunda has been completely refurnished with period furniture in royal blue.

New electrical fittings are being installed throughout the hotel by the Acroft Electrical Company. The plumbing for the new bathrooms in the north wing is being done by Thacker and Holt, while the tile work has been placed with William N. O'Neill and Company.

LAUNDRY EQUIPMENT

New laundry equipment, including two steam washers and one ironer, has been installed in the hotel laundry at a cost of $27,000. A new eighteen-foot tubular boiler has been installed in laundry at a cost of $2,000.

Contractor Burnett has just completed the erection of a pergola with concrete walk extending from the rear of the hotel to Douglas Street at a cost of $3,000. Considerable painting has been done and new greenhouses have been built at a cost of about $2,000.

Commerce-Standard Bank Merger Steps Completed

Chinese Pirates Rob Steamship

Hankow, China, Nov. 5.—One foreigner, Henry Henrie, forty, was shot in the thigh and others were robbed by a gang of Chinese which took possession of the steamer Shao after it had left Hankow last night. They secured loot valued at $7,500 from the first-class passengers. The pirates escaped in a launch which came alongside the vessel.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Standard Bank of Canada, having complied with the legal requirements of the Bank Act, the Treasury Board and the Cabinet, on the recommendation of the Minister of Finance, have granted consent to the absorption of the Standard Bank by the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

MERGER IN 1925

Questioned as to the reasons which prompted the two banks to merge at this time, Hon. James Robb said it was obvious the bank most concerned was the Standard. It would be recalled that the Standard Bank in 1923 was compelled to reduce its rest or reserve fund and in 1924, when the Standard and Sterling Banks applied for permission to combine, the Minister of Finance, charged with the responsibility of administering the Bank Act, had special audits made of the affairs of the two institutions. A merger was then recommended as being in the public interest and it was carried out at the beginning of 1925. Since that date the regular reports of the Standard Bank had been carefully scrutinized and compared with the reports of other banking institutions. It was apparent the Standard had not been keeping pace, Mr. Robb said.

"Bank mergers may displease some, but bank failures hurt everyone, and it is better to strengthen our financial institutions in good times than to wait until heavy strains develop weaknesses," said Mr. Robb. "Having sweated through the 'troubles' of the Home, Hamilton, Montreal, the old Nationale and Union, I know whereof I speak."

NEGOTIATIONS IN JULY

The negotiations to have the Standard Bank taken over by the Bank of Commerce were made known to the public in an announcement July 13 last.

The Cabinet gave its formal consent at a meeting last Friday and the announcement has just been made by Mr. Robb.

Northcott Hearing In Vancouver To-day

Vancouver, Nov. 5.—The prosecution to-day completed its evidence on the murder charge in connection with the Winslow boys, Nelson and Louis, in the extradition hearing before Judge H. S. Cayley of Gordon Stewart Northcott, wanted in California to answer charge of murder at his Wineville chicken ranch. Judge Cayley then adjourned the hearing until Wednesday when he expects to give a decision on this charge. Objection to the whole extradition proceedings on the ground that the prosecution had failed to prove any corpus delicti would be taken later, it was announced by Frank Lyons, counsel for the accused.

After the finish of the Winslow case, the court will hear evidence on the other murder charges against Northcott.

London, Ont., Nov. 5.—Dr. Peter Graham, eighty-three, one of the oldest practicing physicians in Ontario, died yesterday.

NEW MACHINE USES WAVES OF SEA TO CREATE POWER

Rio Janeiro, Nov. 5.—A Polish engineer, Francisco Dergut-Rawicz, who has lived in Brazil for twenty-two years, has announced the invention of a machine by which he claims the movement of ocean waves can be harnessed. The vertical motion of the waves is converted into power by compression of air. He has demonstrated his apparatus before the Minister of Marine.

TORAL GOES ON STAND AT TRIAL

San Angel, Mexico, Nov. 5.—Jose Toral, assassin of President-elect Obregon, resumed the witness stand yesterday at his trial and again exonerated Mother Concepcion, his co-defendant, of having any part in the Mexican general who was about to become the chief executive of the nation.
Answering questions put to him by counsel for Mother Concepcion, Toral insisted it was to hear mass that he visited the nun's house, and for no other reason.
He testified he "was prepared to do something of the sort" when Mother Concepcion casually remarked to him that only by the death of General Obregon, President-elect of Mexico, could the religious situation in Mexico be solved.
Torale said that remark, although the nun was utterly unaware of its effect, "was the last drop in the bucket." Without telling her of his plans he immediately resolved to kill the President-elect, he said.

TELLS OF NAVAL DEVELOPMENT IN SOUTH PACIFIC

String of Aeroplane Stations
Being Established on Islands

Work is Rushed on Big Naval Base at Singapore, Says
Sydney Man

The British Government is building a string of aeroplane and naval bases extending from Singapore, through the South Pacific Islands to Australia, according to James Boyle, well-known newspaper publisher of Sydney, Australia, who arrived here this morning aboard the American Mail liner President Madison, from the Orient.
Mr. Boyle, who is accompanied by Mrs. Boyle, has been on a tour of several months duration, which took him through the islands of the South Pacific, to Singapore, Hongkong, China, and Japan. He is on his way to California to spend the Winter and will afterwards proceed to Europe.

WORK RUSHED
Work is proceeding night and day on the big naval base at Singapore, said Mr. Boyle. The huge drydock there is nearing completion, aeroplane hangars and fields and oil depots are being established. Workmen are being paid as high as triple wages in order to rush the work through, he said.

Throughout the islands, oil bases are being established, he declared. At present, work is being carried out at Port Darwin, where a number of oil tanks is being set down with other facilities for aeroplanes.
Just what object is behind this apparently hurried construction is hard to judge, said Mr. Boyle. It is possibly in line with a general aerial and naval development programme, he suggested.

RICH COUNTRY
Mr. Boyle talked of Java as one of the richest countries in the world as far as minerals are concerned. The people there, with plenty of wealth at their finger tips, are perfectly content, he said.

In China, the beginning of a big financial move was indicated, he pointed out. The Spassoon interests were planning to take over a large new bank and a revival of financial deals was apparent.
Mr. Boyle thinks it will take Japan a good many years to regain her feet, after financial crisis, which followed upon recent earthquake disasters. In Tokyo, especially, he said, it will probably be forty or fifty years before normal conditions are obtained.

CITY MANAGER PLAN TO BE LIVE ISSUE IN CIVIC ELECTION

and will not go before the electorate in any new capacity this year.
Alderman E. S. Woodward is expected to be a candidate in the elections. Whether he will run for the mayoralty or council office has not yet been stated.

STRAITH WILL RUN
W. T. Straith, who has served for two years on the City School Board and is also chairman of the Zoning Board, is retiring from the trusteeship to enter the aldermanic contest. He stated to The Times to-day, Mr. Straith is president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Vice-president of the Senior Chamber and a well-known local barrister.

FIVE SEATS OPEN
Already announced for the aldermanic board are Mrs. H. Crocker, who entered the same contest last year; Alderman H. O. Litchfield, chairman of the industrial committee, who is completing his second year on the council, and Robert Smith, the head of a plumbing business on Douglas Street, who is making his first entry into civic elections. Archie Aitken, J. A. Shanks and William Cullen are also being mentioned by their friends as probable candidates for aldermanic honors. Five seats will be open on the council.

FOR POLICE BOARD

For the single vacancy on the police board, Commissioner W. E. Staniland, Andrew McGavin and Mrs. James McGavin have already announced. All three have been before the public before, and Commissioner Staniland has served a number of years in the office. The mayor-elect will be the chairman of the new board, while Commissioner William White has another year of his present term to serve.

TUSTEESHIPS VACANT

For the school board, Trustees George Jay and W. C. Moreby, K.C., whose terms expire, are expected to offer themselves for re-election. P. E. George, who contested the seat last year, will again be in the field. Three vacancies will occur on the board, with Trustees Alex Peden, J. L. Beckwith, A. C. Pike and J. S. McMillan continuing in office for a further year.
The electorate will also be asked to vote on the new district technical school project, in a referendum to be taken on a money by-law.
Nomination day will be on December 6 with polling to take place on December 13.

REMAIN ON COUNCIL

Surviving members on the council who do not need to seek re-election as they have a further year of existing terms to run, include Aldermen R. A. Dewar, William Marchant, J. L. Mara, John Harvey and John Worthington.
Mayor J. C. Pendergast announced earlier in the year that he did not contemplate seeking re-election.
Aldermen J. B. Clearhue and James Adam will not offer themselves again, they have stated.
In all ten seats will be open for contest, one each for the mayoralty and police commissionership, three for trusteeships and five for aldermanic seats. Only the mayoralty and council seats carry emoluments, the former now at $4,000 a year, and the latter at $400 a year. Trusteeships and commissionerships are unpaid.

It is conceded that to a degree the turnovers in both directions have been country-wide, with the defection of Republican voters to the Democratic side in such eastern states as New York, Massachusetts, Maryland, Connecticut and Rhode Island; in the larger cities everywhere and in scattered western states like Wisconsin, Montana and Nevada; while the defection of Democratic voters to Hoover has reached its maximum in the South and has been apparent in many states of both East and West.

QUESTION OF RELIGION

Religion—The religious issue has provided the campaign with its most bitter ingredient. It has been talked of most openly in the South, particularly in Alabama. The Smith managers believe they have least to fear from this issue in eastern states like Massachusetts, with their large Catholic population. They expect defections everywhere and in scattered western states. It is conceded the issue has had special weight among German and Scandinavian Lutherans in some sections of the Mid-west and Northwest.

TARIFF ISSUE

The tariff and prosperity—Republican orators have made the tariff and "Coolidge prosperity" a keynote of their campaign. They have told the business men, big and little, that a Democratic victory would upset industrial stability. The tariff has been invoked as a bulwark for the western farmer and rancher, and a guarantee of steady employment for the eastern factory workers.
On the other side, the bid of Governor Smith and National Chairman Baugh for the universal confidence of the business world has been one of the striking features of the campaign. Business, agriculture and labor have been told that under the Democratic tariff plank of 1928, and the policies of the nominee, nothing need be feared from a Democratic administration.

New York, Nov. 5.—Neither the Republicans nor Democrats have a clear majority in the present United States Senate. Owing to Senator Vane of Pennsylvania and Senator Smith of Illinois having been refused their seats the Republicans fall just one short of a clear majority.

In the House of Representatives, the Republicans, with 231 seats, have a majority of thirty-five.

POLICE CHANGES ARE POSTPONED

Vancouver, Nov. 5.—There will be no reorganization of the police force of Vancouver until the new board meets. It was indicated at a special session of the police commission this forenoon.

Eight senior officers superannuated on Chief H. W. Long's recommendation at a recent meeting, were reinstated until the new commission meets.

Corporation Counsel George E. McCrossan's six-page digest of R. S. Leann's sixty-page report on the recent police inquiry was left for consideration of the new commissioners. Before the meeting closed, however, Commissioner T. W. Fletcher demanded a report from the chief on the activities of all undesirable alleged to be operating here. Many were sworn into the city now, he charged, and a great number of these were not Canadians and should be deported.

This report will be presented at the next meeting, Monday, November 21.

ONE REINSTATEMENT

Former Detective-Sergeant John Robertson, who was dismissed during the police inquiry and who was then reinstated pending the outcome of the Gilmore case, received reinstatement as a first-class constable. This action was taken on the understanding that he would return to a position which would not require him to testify in court.

The new police commission of Greater Vancouver will take office January 1 next.

Former Detective-Sergeant John Robertson's greatest error in handling the Gilmore case was an "error of zeal and had judgment," declared J. W. de B. Francis, K.C., appearing on the officer's behalf. He pointed to the officer's long record of good service. The Gilmore case was a difficult one to judge, he said.

After Chief Long and Deputy Chief Leatherdale had testified to the officer's good record, Commissioner T. W. Fletcher moved he be reinstated for inside service.

TO DISCUSS REWARD

Chief John Fry of Victoria will appear before the commission at the next meeting in connection with the commission's reward for the capture of Leung Chung, which was effected by the Victoria police.

No reply had been received by the commission in response to its request for substantiation of allegations made by Rev. J. Richmond Craig in a recent letter. It was announced by Secretary Frank Amor.

Head of College Resigns His Post

New Westminster, Nov. 5.—Rev. A. M. Sanford, D.D., principal of Columbian College for last fifteen years, has tendered his resignation to take effect on June 30, 1929.

It was with great regret the board of directors of the college accepted the resignation. Eulogistic references were made touching the fine services of Dr. and Mrs. Sanford since 1913, and a committee was appointed to draft a suitable resolution to be presented to the next meeting of the board.

COLLYER AND COMPANION LOSE LIVES WHEN PLANE HITS SIDE OF MOUNTAIN

The broken character of the terrain did not enable searchers to reach the scene of the tragedy until late yesterday, when a twenty-year-old youth, Frank Shields, found the scattered remains of the proud cross-continent record-holding monoplane.

ROCKS SPLINTERED

Only the fact that the rocks were ploughed away at the spot where the plane hit, and the searchers, led by the sheriff, to fix the exact scene of the crash, for parts of the craft were scattered for more than a quarter of a mile along the mountainside.

Letters and photographs, along with a few personal effects of the fliers, served to identify them as the two who

CORONER'S STATEMENT

Summing up the situation at the scene of the crash, Coroner J. P. Clark said:

"The plane struck the hillside and the gasoline supply ignited from the overheated motor and exploded. The heavier parts of the motor and the two bodies were projected by the speed of the flight and the force of the explosion about 300 feet forward, and came to rest among a thick growth of scrub oak. We are unable to tell whether the men had been able to make any use of their parachutes. The parachutes were opened and connected with the bodies."

The coroner said he believed the deaths would be held accidental, due to the failure of the oil line. The inquest was continued until this afternoon.

where the pilot and his companion, Meers, with several hundred Victorians, spent an all-night vigil awaiting the dawn. A faint tinge of light was appearing on the Eastern sky as the trusty monoplane, which had never faltered throughout the trip, soared off in a southeasterly direction. Collyer and Meers made one stop in Spokane on his way East and thereafter were reported continuously flying a true and steady course to New York.

On that trip, Collyer and Meers broke by three days the existing record for round-the-world travel.

No more static

Those heavy velvet drapes, which deaden echo and noise in the broadcasting studios, are of little value when announcers and performers cough and sneeze before the "micro."

That is why the handy white box of GROVE'S BROMO QUININE can be found in so many of the broadcasting stations. Let a sneeze or a headache or throat tickle appear after any exposure and GROVE'S BROMO QUININE tablets are instantly recommended and promptly taken.

Many millions of people have learned from past experience that the two best things to do for a cold are: first—take GROVE'S BROMO QUININE; second—Don't wait. Take it immediately at the onset of the cold. Thus, they either side-step the cold entirely or throw it off quickly.... SNOWFLAKE CRASH MAY INVOLVE B.C. CABINET MINISTERS

Despite efforts on the part of those who fear the Government report may be bearish and who favor it being toned down, it is known that Hon. Mr. McKenzie stands firm to have the full reports of the engineers published, no matter whether they are bearish or bullish, and without regard to whom they may pinch or profit. Mr. McKenzie said that the public, in accordance with his policy of making available all information, should have at their disposal all the facts in the possession of the Government regarding any mine.

The grounds on which the issue of cabinet ministers playing the market will be raised in the Legislature, centre around the fact that the members of the cabinet have control over the expenditure for roads and trails into each mine in the Province, and that mines in which Cabinet ministers have been buying stock are more likely to fare well in Government appropriations.

The fact also is being taken up that Cabinet ministers, being familiar with mine reports as they come in, can, if they are playing the market, turn their early information to their own profit, whereas the public has access to such information only at a later time.

Dealing with the Snowflake situation, S. W. Miller, president of the Vancouver Stock Exchange, to-day telegraphed The Victoria Times, denying that brokers had been responsible for short selling of Snowflake.

TO-MORROW'S ELECTIONS

NEARLY FORTY MILLION VOTERS in the United States to-morrow will go to the polls to elect a new president, a new House of Representatives and thirty-seven senators. The present standing of the House is: Republicans, 231; Democrats, 193; Farmer-Labor, 2; Socialist, 1, and eight vacancies, making a total of 435. In the Senate, which is composed of ninety-six, two members from each of the forty-eight states, there are 48 Republicans, 45 Democrats, 1 Farmer-Labor, and 2 vacancies. The constitution requires one-third, or thirty-two, of the senators to retire every two years.

Although there are certain indications which may suggest who the next president of the Republic will be, it does not do to assume that these are reliable indications. The Literary Digest has conducted a straw vote as it has done in other presidential election years. If this can be taken as a guide, the chances for Mr. Smith's success would appear to be very slim indeed. But it will not do to regard this test as a reliable one merely because The Digest's vote in 1924 was a very close one. On this occasion two outstanding men are bidding for the highest office within the gift of the nation. One is an international as well as a national figure; the other has had a remarkable career in his native state of New York as an administrator. He has yet to taste defeat at the polls.

Two important issues have been discussed exhaustively by both candidates and their supporters—prohibition and farm relief. One issue is new, namely, the religion of Mr. Smith. He is a Roman Catholic, and the United States never has had a Roman Catholic for her president. The delicacy of this subject has been recognized and supporters of the Democrat candidate charge their opponents with discussing it in whispers. What effect this may have had on the electorate will not be known until the votes of the Electoral College have been counted to-morrow night.

Canada very naturally is interested in the verdict. Mr. Hoover represents the party with which usually are associated "the interests"—big business. Mr. Smith corresponds more to the Canadian conception of a Liberal, although in the matter of the tariff, the general dividing line between the two parties in this country, he does not appear to be in favor of making any very substantial concessions to the consumer. Platform utterances before the election on this point, however, might be tempered by certain mental reservations, for the Democratic party of the United States for no means is a high tariff party. Should Mr. Hoover be elected, the present policies of the republic would undergo very little change.

MINERAL PRODUCTION IN CANADA

CANADA HAS IN SIGHT A MINERAL production for 1928 aggregating in value about $260,000,000 if prices continue firm and the progress made during the remainder of the year does not fall short of what may reasonably be expected, according to reports received by Mr. S. H. Logan, general manager of The Canadian Bank of Commerce. This would establish a new high level, five per cent. above the record of 1927 and twenty-three per cent. above the figures of ten years ago, when prices were highly inflated.

Towards this total the precious metals are expected to contribute $52,000,000, the four principal base metals mined in Canada $72,000,000, coal $60,000,000, and other non-metallic minerals $76,000,000. Little change is anticipated from the figures of a year ago except in the case of the base metals, which promise an increase of $13,000,000 over the amount of $59,000,000 in 1927 and an approximation to the high level of $74,000,000 in 1918.

The value of the gold production for the year is expected to run to $40,000,000, or slightly more than the high record of the previous year, decreases from some mining areas being offset by increases from others. Silver production may fall short of the 1927 figure. The recent improvement in price, however, should bring the total value to about $12,000,000, or only slightly less than a year ago.

The recovery of the commercial metal industry from the post-war depression within a few years, as a result of improved production methods, greater co-operation among producers, rationalization in selling, and ingenuity in creating new markets, is one of the most remarkable developments of recent times. The world's consumption of copper and lead has doubled since 1921, while the use of zinc has trebled and that of nickel has increased to nearly five-fold since the low points in these industries. In each case the present consumption is about 150 per cent. of the pre-war figure. In the case of all but nickel it is considerably above the peak of war-time demand, while the new uses to which nickel now is being put already have brought consumption almost up to that demand.

As Canada produces between eighty-five per cent. and ninety per cent. of the world's nickel, the increasing use of this metal, alone or in conjunction with others, is of particular interest to the Canadian mining industry. The output for 1928 is expected to reach 44,000 tons, with a value of $18,000,000, as against 33,400 tons in 1927, an increase of thirty-one per cent. of the year, and of 400 per cent. over the low point of 1922. Great Britain and the United States take most of the output, the former for the purpose of refining, the latter for further manufacturing. A certain quantity of refined nickel is also exported direct to the Netherlands and to Germany, and a small quantity to Japan.

Canada's participation in the world's lead and zinc supply has increased notably since the war. The value of the lead mined during 1928 is expected to be approximately $18,000,000, that of zinc $11,000,000, in both cases nearly four times the value reached in 1918. The relative figures for 1927 were $16,500,000 and $10,200,000. Canada also produces eighty-three per cent. of the world's asbestos, the consumption of which is now three times that of 1921 and is steadily increasing, with at present a strong demand from Europe.

OUR OPTIMISTIC OKANAGAN

CERTAIN POLITICIANS HAVE BEEN telling us recently that the Ottawa Government is gradually ruining the fruit industry of the Okanagan Valley because it will not bar American fruit with a higher import duty. We have taken most of this propaganda with a large grain of salt: its political flavor has been altogether too apparent. The fact that Mr. Bennett has been very noisy on the subject has not impressed us at all. Nor is it necessary for us to go into lengthy details to show that the people of the Okanagan Valley are doing much less worrying than the politicians who are going up and down the country describing what they want us to believe is a most depressing state of affairs—all due to the wicked Liberal Government at Ottawa. We will let this paragraph, which precedes a lengthy illustrated article that appeared in yesterday's Vancouver Daily Province, tell the story:

In a recent trip to the Okanagan and the Kootenays, the editor of The Sunday Province magazine was told by commercial travelers on the road that they have never received such large orders from Okanagan storekeepers as now. A new hotel in Kelowna, several new stores in Vernon, and many new business blocks in Penticton do not suggest pessimism in the fruit belt.

When our Mainland contemporary announced in its Saturday issue that the article to which we have referred would appear the next day it said this: "In the Okanagan there is irritation that folk on the Coast and in the prairies should picture the B.C. fruit belt as on the brink of utter hopelessness and destitution. The truth is, we read, 'the general feeling in the Okanagan is one of optimism.' We do not know whether Mr. Bennett will continue to tell the people of Canada that the fruit growers of that part of British Columbia are still in a state of despair, or whether he will make a concession to them and say that, after all, they really should know their own business best. Meanwhile, other British Columbians, and particularly the voters in this constituency, no doubt will assume that The Vancouver Daily Province writer has built up his narrative on fact, not fiction."

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

HOOVER AND PROTECTION

The New York World
Protection to Mr. Hoover precludes any suggestion of foreign competition. This view out-Fordneys the Fordney-McCumber Act. The whole professed intent of that measure was to equate production of costs at home and abroad. If a given rate were found here is not rigorous as it is, so far as is practicable, to deprive the foreign competitor of any peculiar advantages which might enable him to drive the domestic producer from the home market. One may search in vain in any of Mr. Hoover's campaign utterances for signs of his adherence to such a relatively mild principle. To him given potential competition is inconsistent with protection.

THE AMERICAN BLEND

The Boston Transcript
If the national origins up to the year 1790 had been adopted as the basis of our present immigration restriction law, instead of that of 1890, the result in determining the character of the population would not have been perceptibly different from that which was decreed by the law. It would represent very nearly the same balance of British, Teutonic, Latin and African elements. It is impossible to deny the composite character of the blood of the American nation. All this does not indicate that we are not justified in desiring to keep it very much as it is, so far as is practicable. The present quota basis represents a deliberate choice of kinds or races of immigrants. It is impossible for anyone to deny that discrimination. Many among us would, no doubt, make another choice. But the 1890 basis may be called the average choice. It suits most people. Whether or not it tends to keep us "Anglo-Saxon," or Anglo-Celtic, or Anglo-Latin-Celtic, is beside the mark. We are as we are, and we have a general idea that we should like to stay as much as possible. In spite of Governor Smith's demand that the 1890 basis shall be changed, so as to let in a larger proportionate immigration from Italy and Eastern Europe, it is probable that the opinion of the majority of the people will result in the maintenance of the existing quota basis.

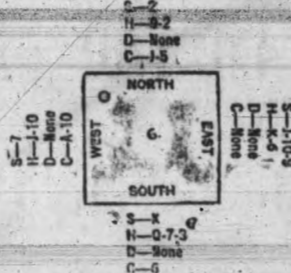

A THOUGHT

CRUISE PULLIE

BY FAYAN MOTHEY

NUMBER FIVE

There are no trumps and South has the lead. North and South must win two of the five tricks, against a perfect defence.

Lay out the cards on a table, as shown in the diagram, and study the situation. See if you can find the proper method of play. Remember there is only one way in which North and South can win two of the five tricks. You'll find that way explained in the solution.

Solution to-morrow.

SATURDAY'S SOLUTION

This is a case where very delicate play is required, and where the chief object is to gain sufficient re-entries in the South hand.

South leads a diamond, which West covers and North trumps with one of the four highest spades. North now leads a low trump, which South wins with the eight. South now leads another diamond. West again covering and North again trumping high. North then leads a high trump and South plays the deuce. Now North leads his remaining low trump, South winning with the five. South then leads his two good diamonds. North discarding his two losing clubs and winning the final trick with his remaining trump.

There is no way of defeating this problem provided North and South always follow the correct procedure. If at any time West refuses to cover South's diamond lead, North discards a club. North always trumps high to establish the two necessary re-entries in his partner's hand.

A CLEAN HARBOR

To the Editor—In your issue of the twenty-fifth of last month I saw an item about the way the entrance to the harbor was partly blocked by a lot of rafts with many acorns attached to them—they block the whole waterfront of Erie Street where property is valued high on account of a waterfront. The beach in front of Erie Street is a disgrace with all the shacks on the edge of the water with no sanitary arrangements.

I am told that there is a committee appointed to examine the harbor. Surely they will see the objectionable rafts in front of Erie Street, especially at low water.

Yours for a clean harbor.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

To the Editor—The Social Service League of Victoria is now appealing to the public for its yearly support. This seems, therefore, a fitting opportunity to give testimony to the value of this quiet but effective organization in our community.

The Social Service League aims to build up family life, and the patient, persevering services of Miss Snyder and Miss McBride merit the whole-hearted support of the citizenship of Victoria.

An important feature of the organization is the fine spirit of co-operation which all the denominations in the city have shown, and each has a share in front of the directors.

I have, therefore, great pleasure in endorsing the efforts of the board of directors to support this cause by raising funds at the time.

BUS COMPANY PURCHASES

To the Editor—In view of the recent invitation made by the Vancouver Island and Coast Line Company to the investing public it might be interesting to seek some information on the following lines: Since this company was originally made possible by the goodwill and confidence of the Spanish people and the support of the British Empire, it is now seeking some measure of financing from this community. It is a fact that all purchases of new equipment have been made in the United States.

It is further true that the public protection insurance, as required by law, has not been written locally, but has been placed in the United States, thus removing business from our city where it would have benefited in turn this community.

It is a fact that the history of such foreign insurance has been far from satisfactory, as lately evidenced in Vancouver, and that it is indeed considered of doubtful value by financial lawyers and business men generally.

A direct line of doubt as to above questions will no doubt be of aid in satisfying potential stockholders.

PHONE ABUSE IS DISCUSSED

Lengthy Conversations on Party Lines Cause Interference in Service to Others

Party line telephone service abuse was recently reviewed by C. G. Vickery of Rochester, N.Y., telephone superintendant in an address before the Up-State Telephone Association of New York. Many points discussed are of interest in Victoria, where seventy-five per cent of the telephones are on party lines.

Mr. Vickery stressed the point that "party-line service" involves the joint use of a single line by two or more subscribers. Each subscriber has an individual telephone, but a message to or from any one of the telephones makes use of the entire circuit and prevents other parties on that line sending or receiving telephone calls until the conversation is completed and the circuit released.

LOW FEE POSSIBLE
The party-line telephone has made it possible for telephone companies to give service at a moderate rate. Good service, however, is something more than a matter of instruments, wire and company operators.

It depends in some measure on the co-operation of subscribers with the company and in the ease of party lines, upon the fairness and consideration shown by each subscriber to the other parties on the line.

Each subscriber on the line is of course entitled to telephone service, and should be permitted to talk without interruption or annoyance. The use of the telephone for long periods repeatedly by any single subscriber on a party line is unfair to others sharing the line. Mr. Vickery said that observation by subscribers of the following points would aid materially in insuring good party-line service:

Limit local conversations to not more than five minutes.

When the receiver is lifted from the hook and the line found in use, the receiver should be hung up immediately, as while the receiver is off the hook the other party's conversation is interfered with.

It is particularly important that no attempt be made to operate the receiver hook when the line is found to be in use.

FEW CAUSE TROUBLE
From Mr. Vickery's observation of party service on 10,000 lines he found that eighty-five per cent of the conversations were five minutes or less, and that the balance or fifteen per cent was causing all the trouble, two per cent ran anywhere from sixteen minutes to more than half an hour.

SCHUBERT CLUB TO GIVE SEASON'S FIRST CONCERT

Centenary of Death of Franz Schubert to Be Commemorated

Citizens of Victoria will again have the opportunity of hearing the Schubert Club at the first recital of its fifth season, in the Victoria High School, on November 20.

The work of this choir is well-known, and it is recognized as one of the finest choral societies in the Northwest. Its latest triumph having been won the recent Musical Festival held in Seattle in competition with four other ladies' choirs.

The programme for the November concert is made up entirely of Schubert numbers, in commemoration of the centenary of the death of Franz Schubert, which is being celebrated this year in all musical centres of the world.

Another feature of this programme and one which has a special appeal to Victoria's music lovers, is the instrumental trio, in which the following artists will appear: Mrs. Reta Orniston McNeill, pianist; F. Gratian, violinist; and Harold Taylor, violoncellist.

The club is still open for receiving associate memberships, and tickets are available from any member.

RECITAL HELD BY PUPILS OF MRS. G. M. HODGES, L.A.B.

A most successful recital was given by the pupils of Mrs. G. M. Hodges, L.A.B., at her home on 1409 Hillside Avenue on Saturday.

A large number of parents and friends enjoyed the music and many spoke words of appreciation to the advance the pupils had made in their work. The programme consisted of piano solos, duets and a trio.

Those taking part were: Pauline Woodward, Herbert Hipwood, Joan Lambrick, Rita Norris, Berta Robertson, Marguerite Hasefratz, Roma Sedgman, Margaret Woodruff, Edna Dingley, Kath Sedgman, Florence Robertson, Vivian Martin, Peggy Sedgman, Doris Bennett, Jack Trace, Miss Kathleen Martin, Miss Florence Simpson, Miss Dorothea Curtis, Miss Viola Davis, Miss Doris Gilbert, Miss Dorothy Carter, Miss Mary Silk, Miss Betty Shute. The evening's pleasure was the clever recitation of Little Helen Woodward.

Bridge Party—Members and friends of the Women Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital, who are desirous of securing tables for the bridge party being held in conjunction with the annual bazaar on November 15 at the hospital, are requested to phone Mrs. W. T. Barrett 38588 for reservations.

Chapter Meeting—The usual monthly meeting of Gonzales Chapter will be held on Tuesday, November 6, at headquarters, Union Bank Building, at 10.30 a.m.

Sketch Club Meeting—The Sketch Club of the Island Arts and Crafts Society will meet on Tuesday afternoon in the clubrooms in the Union Bank Building. Sketching from flowers and still life will form the work of the afternoon. All members are asked to be in attendance as plans for the winter work will be discussed.

Meeting To-night—The Women's Conservative Association will hold a meeting to-night in the smaller room and the headquarters at the Campbell Building at 7 o'clock.

A colored preacher in Exeter Springs, Mo., naturally drifted toward politics in his sermon. He warned his congregation against voting where it might help repeal the Eighteenth Amendment. "Let 'em once get started repealing 'emendments," the preacher said, "an' you-all don't know where it stops. Mebbe next de 17th 'emendment de 18th 'emendment de 19th 'emendment and den where is you-all cullud breddren an' sisters gwine to be?"

HOW TRAINING SHOWS UP AT SCHOOL

When the child proudly displays an A or 1 in "personal appearance" on his card, he indicates that his mother is giving him a careful home grooming and just as surely does his "conduct" C or D mirror his home training.

In a nearby kindergarten are two interesting children. One is a girl, because of her present behavior is so significant of what their environment has done for them.

The first, a girl, exhibits a peculiar aversion to noise. When anything goes wrong she claps her hands to her ears and screams piercingly.

She makes such a fuss when she is taken where there are people, or where there is noise, that she has had to have her airings after dark when the parks are quiet.

She has been taken from doctor to psychologist, and so far there is no indication of anything wrong or any improvement in her condition. The mother attributes it to trouble she had with her ears before the baby was born

MOTHER'S UNION DOES FINE WORK

Mrs. E. E. Wootton Reports on Recent Convention Held in Winnipeg

The Autumn meeting of the Diocesan branch of the Mothers' Union was held last week in the hall of the Memorial Hall which was filled to capacity. After routine business had been transacted, Mrs. Schofield spoke to the meeting on Dr. Wymann's forthcoming lectures.

Mrs. Robinson, a missionary on her way back to China, spoke of the work being done for the Chinese by the Christian Chinese women.

The president, Mrs. E. E. Wootton, then gave her report of the national council, lately held in Winnipeg. One of the outstanding features of the conference was the service held in the Cathedral, which was crowded in spite of the first snow storm of the season.

The Mothers' Union, a spiritual society aiming at ideal Christian motherhood, sent in an urgent petition to the government asking that the Bolshevik newspaper published and distributed in Canada be suppressed, reported Mrs. Wootton.

Among the papers read were two dealing respectively with "Religious Education in the Home" and "Religious Education in the School."

Mrs. Wootton, while in Winnipeg, was the guest of Archbishop and Mrs. Mathison.

The Diocesan branch of the Mothers' Union feel very grateful to Mrs. Wootton for her journey to Winnipeg on their behalf, as it was the first Columbia Diocese represented at a Dominion Council.

Mrs. Josephine Wood of Vancouver delighted guests and visitors at the Empress Hotel last evening with her artistic rendering of vocal selections, accompanied by the Empress orchestra.

For the next two weeks Mrs. Wood will sing at the hotel at the tea hour on Tuesday and Thursday and during dinner on Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.

On Sunday next, the annual chrysanthemum tea will be held at the Empress Hotel in the ballroom, at which the magnificent autumnal growth of the Empress Hotel gardeners will be displayed. A musical programme will be given from 4 to 5.30 at which Mrs. Wood will also be the soloist.

FOR RUMBLE RIDERS

Now the swanky little "rumble-seat" coat of fur takes its seat in the new high-powered car of fashion. Paris sees a real need for an especial type of sports fur coat for the girl who sits in the rumble seat. It must be well so it does not take up too much room. It must be full, so its wearer can sit in ease without its gaping and letting in the cold. It should have snug cuffs, collar and preferably a belt, to better retain the body's warmth. Jenny contributes this rumble-seat coat of bronze hue, shaven kid, a soft, short fur that is pliable enough to be treated like fabric. A flounce of fur grants fullness. A fur belt holds it snugly to the body and it is cut double-breasted for further comfort. A stock collar and tight inner cuffs keep the winds off the neck and arms. It is warmly interlined with kasha in matching shade. So finely is this little garment tailored that it fits almost like a frock, with snug shoulders.

Children like things they can pull around. Nancy discovered that the constructive instinct had begun to assert itself. Joan liked to handle modeling clay and make queer looking objects. She enjoyed soap bubbles. Joan had a blunt pointed scissors and pages of colored figures from Nancy's fashion magazines. She played with a soft doll and a little bed into which she put the doll twenty times a day. She watched Aunt Nancy making beds and tried to do the same with her doll's crib. She had reached the constructive age where she wished to imitate the actions of her elders.

CANADA GREET'S SIR W. CLARK

First British High Commissioner Guest at Government Dinner in Ottawa

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—Canada on Saturday night gave official welcome to the first High Commissioner from Great Britain to this Dominion. At a Government dinner, presided over by Premier King and attended by members of the Cabinet, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Federal Conservative leader, and by others prominent in the political and social and business life of Canada, Sir William Clark and the members of his family were accorded a hearty welcome to Canada.

And not only Canadians at home, but representatives of the Dominions abroad joined in the welcome. From Canada's High Commissioner in London and from her Ministers at Washington, and Paris came greetings by cable and telegraph—messages of good will to the man selected for the important post of first representative of the British Government at Ottawa.

IMPORTANT STEP
The importance of the step which has been taken by the British Government in the appointment of a high commissioner to Canada found expression in the speech of Premier King, who welcomed Sir William and his wife and family to Canada on behalf of the Government.

"Were I to express in a word my feelings as to the significance of the appointment to Canada of a High Commissioner for Great Britain," said Mr. King, "I would say I believe it is by far the most important step that has yet been taken to further effective co-operation and co-operation between the Government of His Majesty in the Dominion of Canada and the Government of His Majesty in Great Britain, with resultant benefits to both, and what is even more important, to the unity of the Empire as a whole, the most effective means thus far devised of securing the crown against involvement in any possible controversy which may ever arise between different Governments of which His Majesty is the head. It closer relations of the Governments of the Empire and the maintenance of its unity through the security of the crown are what we all desire, may we not truly say that here they find their surest as well as their latest development?"

BENNETT SPEAKS
The creation of the post would serve to knit more firmly and strongly the bonds and bonds of the Empire, in the opinion of Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, who joined with the Prime Minister in his words of welcome.

APPRECIATES WELCOME
Sir William Clark, responding, thanked Canada for the warm welcome given himself and family.

Speaking of the changes in the structure of the Empire during the last few years, Sir William said:
"The progress may have seemed to you sometimes unduly slow, but at least it may be said of our people in Great Britain that they have accepted the quickly culminating developments since the war with unquestioning approval and that, perhaps, is not without significance when coming from a race so conservative, so tenacious of tradition, so averse to change."

Very Up-to-Date
"Let's run off and get separated."
"It would be awfully romantic, dear, but mother'd feel dreadfully hurt if I didn't get a regular court divorce. I'm to wear the same dress she did."

"Boss (to Riley, who has lost a hand in an explosion)—'Tis a terrible accident ye do be havin', Riley."
Riley—'Yis, but it moight 've been worse—I moight 've had me week's pay in me hand."

VELVET FINDS NEW USES IN THE WINTER'S MODE

Patou Favors Artificial Product Because It Is Thin Enough For Pleating; He Develops New Material

Here are two luxuriously supple new velvets which lend themselves admirably to the new styles. Left is a rich red velvet evening gown with an apron skirt with ruffling, reminiscent of the 80's. The double tiered frock, right, with bloused bodice and scarf collar, is made of a beautiful new black velvet with shaded chenille dots in beige.

By JEAN PATOU

Paris, Nov. 5.—Although velvet has always been the most favored fabric for winter wear, it is this year enjoying a greater vogue than ever before. The various uses to which velvet is now adapted explains its popularity. In treating with velvet it is interesting to note that despite the remarkable progress achieved in this material, no new form or texture has been achieved. Any complete collection of fabrics will cover the entire field of velvets.

I have tried to establish my preference for solid colored velvets dyed by a new process. By working with the manufacturers I have obtained velvets with an upstanding pile which has given women new colorings difficult to imitate and new to fashion.

COST WAS PROHIBITIVE
A few years ago this velvet was laid aside because of its excessive cost, but is now being used again for trimmings or ordinary winter suits. It is a fabric made entirely by hand and cannot be used freely because of the limited production.

There was a strong feeling a few years ago against artificial velvets, but the manufacturer has so improved in his art that a good couturier need no longer hesitate to use it. As a matter of fact, I believe the day is near when artificial silk velvets will replace the natural velvet. One of the great advantages of artificial velvet is that with this fabric we can obtain a more extensive variety of design and coloring.

THINNER THAN GENUINE
Another advantage is that it can be made sufficiently thin to be pleated, which is something that could never be achieved with the genuine velvet. This field of pleated velvet offers the couturier many possibilities in decoration and originality in line.

Winter season is not exactly new as far as design goes, but is new in the application of velvet. This is the light polka-dot on a dark background, usually in pinks, yellows, greens and blues.

There is an increasing use of velvet in the domain of the tailored suit, and with this such a suit is more flattering to its wearer than the ordinary winter suiting and infinitely more dresy. This winter's velvet suit is nearly always dark, black, brown, navy blue or green, relieved by a blouse in a matching colored shade.

Victoria City Lose And Greenshirts Now Lead First Division

Saanich Thistles Spring Surprise By Handing City First Defeat of Season; Game Was Roughest This Year; Wests Win Easily From Westholmes; Esquimalt Retain Third Place By 5-0 Victory Over Five C's

After hanging in second place since the start of the season the Victoria Wests' First Division soccer club, are now perched on the top of the league standings following Saturday's matches.

The greenshirts went into first place when Victoria City, the league leaders hit a snag in the form of the Saanich Thistles at Beacon Hill and went down to a 2-0 defeat, their first setback this season. The Wests won from the tail-end Westholmes club 5-0 at Work Point Barracks. Esquimalt retained their third place in the averages by taking Five C's by 5-0 at Central Park.

In one of the roughest games seen in the First Division this season the Saanich Thistles beat out Victoria City. Both teams played a hard game and referee McKay had his hands full calling fouls on both sides from the start to the finish of the match. There was a lot of unnecessary dirty playing and it spoiled the game as far as the spectators were concerned. The referee could have been a little more strict, considerable tripping and back charging getting by that he never called.

ROGERS PLAYS WELL
Jack Rogers, the Thistles' goalie, is the man to be thanked for his team's victory. He played brilliantly and in the second half when Claude Bissell and Barney Burns were right through and had only the goalie to beat he came out of his net to make sensational saves. The whole Saanich defence played well. Wes Harper and Joe Crowe clearing in fine style.

For the first fifteen minutes of the game the City had everything their own way. Saanich kicking downhill seemed unable to get going and their goal was continually in danger. Barney Burns passed up a lovely opportunity to score when he missed Cameron's low cross in the goal mouth.

Saanich finally carried the ball down the field and Esler drove in a couple of weak shots that Bridges cleared easily. The City returned the play forcing two corners in quick succession but the Saanich backs cleared.

SCORE ON PENALTY
The opening goal of the match came as the result of a penalty kick awarded against the City. Jim D'Arcy, the Thistles' outside right, centred the ball only to be tripped up by Tuckwell.

Wes Harper took the kick, beating Bridges with a high shot.

No further scoring was seen before the half-time whistle.

Kicking uphill in the second half the Thistles seemed to play better together. Their second goal was scored after a fine bit of kicking on the part of Joe Crowe. Saanich were awarded a free kick on the right wing sideline near centre. Crowe placed the ball in the mouth and Sammy Esler headed it into the net, catching Bridges flat-footed.

CITY WORK HARD
Two goals down the City worked hard but they found a hard man to beat in Rogers. They were awarded two free kicks just outside the penalty area on fouls against Harper and Viggers but Rogers cleared both drives.

Burns and Claude Bissell both broke through only to have Rogers rob them of goals.

Victoria City—Bridges, Margison, Tuckwell, Stoffer, Preston, Bowman, Cecil D. Bissell, Burns, C. Bissell and Cameron.

Losing two of their men through injuries during the game the Five C's proved no match for Esquimalt at Central Park.

In the first half Thornett, one of the Five C's half-backs was injured and had to leave the field. Barney Burns, another member of the C's half-line, was forced to leave the field early in the second half, when he was hurt.

ESQUIMALT IN LEAD
Twenty minutes after the start Dick Burnett gave Esquimalt the lead with a fast shot. The Five C's forced the play, but their forwards showed poor work in front of the goal. McNeill made it 2-0 when he headed in a pretty cross by Nicol at outside left. This score remained until half-time.

In the second half Esquimalt had all the play and John Watt added two goals while Burnett also got his second of the game.

Although they were weakened through the loss of "Scotty" Robinson and the veteran Bob Whyte the Wests found no trouble scoring a victory over the Westholmes.

LIKE A BLANKET
The greenshirts had it over their opponents like a blanket and scored goals practically at will.

At half-time the score stood 4-0, but in the second half the Wests took things easier, only adding one more counter.

The Wests' opening goal came from the toe of Stewart, at centre-forward. This was followed, shortly after, by another from the boot of Johnny Peden. Before half-time "Toots" Plump and Stewart had both found the net.

In the second half the Wests fooled around with the ball and after working right in on the goal would shoot the ball wide in order to keep the score down. The fifth and final goal of the match was scored by Stewart.

Percy Payne refereed.
The teams were as follows:
Wests—Hetherington, S. Sheratt, Hawkes, Popham, Peden, Passmore, J. Sheratt, Stewart, Plump, Thompson and Butler.

Westholmes—McDonald, Stevens, Carmichael, Kelman, Cooper, Tipper, McNaughton, Dick, Evans, Sneddon and Carver.

Saturday's junior soccer games provided some keenly contested and interesting football, with a few changes in the league standing. So far James Island remain the undisputed leaders of the league by their 6-1 victory over Victoria City.

Although badly defeated, Oaklands displayed they are gradually improving. They were the first team to score against James Island.

The Bapco broke their tie with Victoria City for second place by defeating them 2-1. Both teams played good football, although they passed up many good chances to score.

Esquimalt humbled the Y.M.C.A. eleven by the score of 4 to 0. The "Y" held Esquimalt even in the first half, but were overcome in the second period.

A.R. DINGMAN HEADS HOCKEY

Re-elected President of B.C. Amateur Body; Look For Banner Season

Vancouver, Nov. 5.—Re-electing A. R. Dingman, Vancouver, President, and Stan Smith, Vancouver, secretary-treasurer, the British Columbia Amateur Hockey Association prepared for what should be one of its most successful seasons Saturday night.

The reports of both the secretary-treasurer and the president, showed that the association had enjoyed the most successful year in its history, from a financial standpoint at least, in 1927-28.

The report of Secretary-treasurer V. Smith showed that the association had on hand a balance of $2,194.57, after paying operating expenses for the past year. This is the highest surplus the association has had to date.

President Dingman, in his annual report, stated that the provincial intermediate playoffs, for the first time in history, only paid their way, but realized some profit. Playoffs had been held in the junior ranks as well, and the British Columbia championship trophy was won by the Vancouver Canucks.

MAKES CHANGES
After much discussion, it was finally decided to instruct the delegates to the C.A.H.A. annual meeting to that body to give B.C.A.H.A. power to change the residence clause to August 1 instead of May as it now is. It was the opinion of the meeting that British Columbia is in a different situation than the rest of Canada, and the present rule worked hardship.

It was decided to send two delegates from British Columbia to the annual meeting of the C.A.H.A. These delegates are also to be instructed to ask the C.A.H.A. to see that the West gets proper consideration in the playoffs, requesting that the Far Western winners do not have to play too many games.

A BANNER SEASON
Reports were heard from all delegates, and indicated that hockey is in for a banner season during the coming season, in all parts of the Province. Juniors especially are in for much development.

On motion of George Warren of Victoria it was decided to increase the league executive to six men. Another constitutional change was made in Section C of Article 5, being changed to read that "A delegate or an executive member may bear proxy and voting privileges for not more than two clubs at the annual meeting of the association."

Perfect Lovers of Screen Playing At Dominion Theatre

Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky Have Leading Roles in "Two Lovers," Which Will Show for Entire Week; Is Adaptation From Baroness Orczy's Famous Novel "Leatherstocking"; Splendid Supporting Cast.

It becomes increasingly clear to the stubbornly skeptical observer that the team of Colman and Banky is slated for final and irrevocable dissolution. Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky have attained the point where each is an individual star in his and her own right. "Two Lovers," the Samuel Goldwyn production, which opens today at the Dominion Theatre for the entire week, is the last photoplay in which the famous pair may be seen together.

There is a history comparable with that of Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, differing only in that those two never thought of effecting a separation. It all began with "The Dark Angel." Does the audience remember back that far? In this they were a pair in modern England cruelly kept from each other by the World War. Next was "The Winning of Barbara Worth," whose locale moved all the way out to Arizona and its justly notorious deserts.

Dolores Del Rio Has Leading Role In Columbia Film

Pretty Mexican Star Has Stellar Part in "Ramona" For Three Days This Week

A Hollywood fire recently raged over 100 Indian homes to the ground and provided the film city with one of the biggest thrills of the year. In a short space of time, over $100,000 went up in smoke, attracting thousands of motorists from the highways to the scene of the blaze, several miles from the centre of Hollywood.

Five engines from the film city were on the ground, their hose stretching over a half mile to the nearest water connection. The fact that the giant blaze was staged for an episode in "Ramona" now being released in motion picture form, did not matter a particle. Even the oldest old-timer, hardened with all the thrills the movie city offers daily, stood with the crowd and agreed it was a real, not "real" conflagration.

INDIAN SCENE
Edwin Carew, directing "Ramona," starring Dolores Del Rio, engaged 300 Indians to participate in the scene. Over 100 Hollywood cowboys were included in the massacre which showed the whites demolishing an entire Indian village and razing it to smoldering debris.

The shrill cries of the Indians, aided by the excitement of the scene, combined with the roar of the fire engines and the movie generators, could be heard for many blocks, attracting countless autoists, all eager to rush to the fire, few of them suspecting it was staged for a motion picture. "Ramona" is being staged at the Columbia to-day for three days this week.

Gertrude Astor Is Leading Lady Here At Local Playhouse

Plays in "The Small Bachelor" Here Every Evening This Week

"The Small Bachelor," Universal's screen version of P. G. Wodehouse's side-splitting short story of the same name, has been booked for its first local showing by the Playhouse Theatre, starting to-day.

Proclaimed the maddest farce of the year, the picture embraces an all-star cast and was directed by William A. Seiter, ace of comedy directors, responsible for many of Reginald Denney's greatest successes.

BARBARA KENT
Andre Beranger, who is fast becoming known as one of the screen's most versatile actors, plays the "tittle" role. The leading feminine role is portrayed by Barbara Kent, 1927 Wampas star, who has been forging to the front by leaps and bounds during the past year. Gertrude Astor has an important part, while other members of the cast are Ned Sparks, Carmelita Geraghty, Lucien Littlefield, Vera Lewis, Tom Duran and William Austin.

"The Small Bachelor" first appeared in Liberty Magazine where it was read and enjoyed by millions. It is a story of a bashful bachelor, who wins the girl of his heart after a series of situations that keeps one in a constant uproar of delight. The entire action takes place in a period of twenty-four hours and consequently there is not a dull moment. It starts out with a chuckle, turns into a laugh and ends with a roar.

FAMOUS OPERA HERE SHORTLY

"Rose Marie" Will Be Presented By Splendid Company at Royal Next Week

"Rose Marie," the outstanding success of many seasons, will come to the Royal Victoria Theatre November 12 and 13, with a Thanksgiving matinee on Monday afternoon.

BEAUTIFUL COSTUMES
It is said that this best offering of Arthur Hammerstein's is the gold standard of musical plays, one that the theatre patrons can depend on to give a dividend of laughter, joy and happiness. The New York and Chicago critics, both musical and dramatic, have said: "It is many a day since we have enjoyed a musical comedy so much as this one." The music in "Rose Marie," by Rudolf Friml and Herbert Stothart, is declared to be superb; the costumes are unusually beautiful and the scenery and draperies are luxurious. But to his credit, Mr. Hammerstein doesn't depend on ornate trappings alone for the success of his musical plays. He backs them up with an intelligent cast that knows music and how to sing it, that knows comedy and its values.

For this prima donna he has given us Virginia Fox, the youthful star who scored in the Winthrop Ames productions of the Gilbert and Sullivan's operas. She has a voice of brilliant musical quality.

Paul Donah, one of Broadway's most sought-after leading men, Mira Nirska, Charles Mackins, Peggy Fates, Houston Richards, Daisy Gibson, Sam Marco, Ross Gibson, Gus Buell, and over ninety others, including a symphony orchestra are also featured.

FINE CHORUS
"Rose Marie" contains a little of everything in the way of ingredients for a superlative presentation in this field. The principals not only can sing and act, in a way that is a revelation in musical comedy, but they are supported by a chorus that is numerically large and capable vocally and foot-wise.

Light Opera Company Offers "Chimes Of Normandy" To-night

"The Chimes of Normandy," Planquette's melodious operetta, will be the season's second offering of the KOA Light Opera Co., broadcast from KOA in Denver to-night from 9 to 11 o'clock. The same brilliant cast that presented Gilbert and Sullivan's "Iolanthe" in October will be featured in this production. It will be supported by a fifteen-piece concert orchestra. The light opera company is composed of sixteen leading Denver soloists. Leads in succeeding monthly broadcasts are shifted among the singers so that each singer will have a leading part in one light opera and will be in the chorus in the next.

Well-known light operas will be presented during the winter on the first Monday night of each month. Leads in "The Chimes of Normandy" will be sung by Bernice W. Doughty as Serpolette, the good-for-nothing; Marjorie Mellow-Auger as Germaine, the lost marchioness; Everett E. Foster as Henri, the Marquis of Cornville; Ralph Freese as Jean Grencheux, a fisherman; John C. Kendel as Gaspard, a miser; Clarence C. Moore as the Bailiff, and Ben H. Gilbert as Gobo, the notary.

the company, Jack Holt, Howard Van Alstyne and Tracey McDermott.

THE SCREEN

The romantic glamor of the old South, with happy negro slaves, a cruel Simon Legree, and the incomparable "Duncan Sisters"—that is the film fare to be presented at the Coliseum Theatre this week when "Topsy and Eva" is shown on the screen.

Rosetta Duncan is seen as the black-faced little slave girl, "Topsy," while her sister impersonates the saccharine and doll-like "Eva." Gibson, Gowland, star of Eric Von Stroheim's "Greedy," plays the part of the money-lender, Simon Legree. Noble Johnson is Uncle Tom. The rest of the cast includes Marjorie Daw, Nils Asther, latest "find" of Director Maur-

Elinor Glyn Novel Feature Attraction At Capitol Theatre

Brilliant Cast Will Play In "Mad Hour," for Three Days; Story of Modern, Fast Traveling Young Set; Stage Attractions Include Concert Duetists, Female Baritone and Orchestra.

Brilliant in action, and dramatic in its conclusion, "Mad Hour," a First National Picture adapted from Elinor Glyn's story "The Man and the Moment," which opened at the Capitol Theatre to-day, is unique in its entertainment value because it makes no effort to "sugar coat" the situations. "Mad Hour" is a lively story, true to life, which pictures a group of youths trying to leap the hurdles of experience with a fast-traveling young set. Any thinking person will see behind the gaiety and glamor a decided warning against youth.

COLLEGE LIFE
Sally O'Neil appears as the daughter of a taxi-driver in an eastern college city, where the sons of the wealthy, attending college, are wont to make merry with working girls who see in their attentions an escape from drudgery and a way to obtain many of the good times and luxuries of life which might otherwise be denied them.

Donald Reed, last seen in "Naughty But Nice," opposite Colleen Moore, gives a splendid performance as the son of the wealthy family.

Alice White is splendid as Aimee.

Sally's little gold-digging pal, giving her usual lively performance.

ON THE STAGE

The stage attractions at the Capitol for this week include: Sheehan and Richardson, concert duetists; Senor Eduardo with his Marimbophone, and Lucille Enderly, the female baritone in song selections, along with Harold Bechtel the singing M.C., and the Capitol stage band under the baton of Al Prescott.

The club has been fortunate in securing Kolia Levienne, the celebrated Russian cellist, to assist at the concert. Mr. Levienne is very highly spoken of in the leading London and New York papers. His accompanist, John Hopper, will also give piano solos.

For several weeks past the Club has been rehearsing varied and attractive numbers for the concert.

TO BRING SHAW PLAYS TO CITY AGAIN IN 1929

Maurice Colbourne Players to Return With New G. B. S. Repertoire

Maurice Colbourne, whose admirable English company played here all last week to rather small but enthusiastic houses, announced at his closing performance Saturday that he and his talented fellow players would come here again next year.

"I have secured the Canadian rights to the plays of dear old G.B.S.," Mr. Colbourne said in a brief speech before the curtain, "and I am not such a fool as to neglect their use. Therefore, we shall be back here again next year with a new set of plays."

Mr. Colbourne expressed the appreciation of his company and himself for the hospitality extended to them by people in Victoria and other Canadian cities where they have been widely entertained.

A TALENTED COMPANY

Those who saw Mr. Colbourne's company during the week will look forward eagerly to its return next year for seldom has a more talented group of players visited the city. On their next visit in a new set of Shaw plays they are likely to receive wider support.

For its closing night the company produced two plays, "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets" and "Fanny's First Imaginary Scene from the life of Shakespeare," and the second a modern comedy, full of Shawian humor and imitable irony. Both plays were received with marked approval by the audience, which included Lieutenant-Governor R. Randolph Bruce and party.

"PUNISHMENT" THEME IN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the lesson sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday.

"For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish." (Psalm 1, 6) was one of the scriptural texts contained in the lesson sermon.

Following the reading of the Bible texts, passages were also read from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one passage being the following from page 10: "Do you ask wisdom to be merciful and not to punish sin? Then ye ask

J. NORTH PLANS SECOND CONCERT

Arrangements Made to Accommodate Overflow From Capitol Theatre

In order to accommodate the overflow audience which is expected to attend the concert at the Capitol Theatre on November 18, J. North, who is arranging the function to raise funds to furnish clothes and shoes for the inmates of the Protestant Orphanage, has secured the loan of the Playhouse Theatre and is making arrangements for another concert to be held on the same evening.

Ticket sales have almost reached the 2,000 mark and in anticipation of the increased demand which the securing of the Playhouse should ensure, Mr. North has given orders for another thousand to be made.

The Capitol Theatre concert will include instrumental selections by the 16th Canadian Scottish Band, as well as vocal solos rendered by Sidney Petch, tenor, and C. Owens, bass. Arrangements are being made to obtain the 5th Regiment Band for the Playhouse and vocalists will be heard.

Anyone wishing tickets for the function may place orders with Mr. North at his home by telephoning 6845.

Diner—Look here, waiter, that lobster is without a claw. How's that?

Waiter—Well, sir, you see they're so fresh, these lobsters, they fight each other in the pantry.

Diner—Well, take that one away and bring me one of the winners.

WILL REBUILD ON OLD SITE

Owner of "Coach and Horses" Property Plans Erection of Beer Parlor

A modern beer parlor will be built on the site formerly occupied by the old "Coach and Horses" Hotel on Esquimalt Road, which building was destroyed recently by fire.

When questioned about reconstruction operations, Hans Kiesow, owner of the property, stated that he planned to erect a beer parlor on the site. The proposed building, Mr. Kiesow states, will occupy the corner, will be one story high and of frame and stucco construction.

The destroyed building was two stories high and occupied the entire property.

the battle between the two lines, the locals gaining yards nine times as against three times for the much-vaunted Tiger forwards.

The visitors, however, made more use of their backfield than of their front rank. Welch counted three singles with his toe, as against one by the Tiger line.

A COSTLY FUMBLE The Hamilton touch was nettled when Perry, local back, dropped the ball behind his own line after receiving a kick.

Montreal's major points came when Johnny Burrell dribbled the ball over the Tiger line for Gibb of the visitors, fumbled twenty yards from his own goal.

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 5.—Batting with a vengeance that was not to be denied, McGill University jumped from almost oblivion for the rugby season to the position of near-champions, when they defeated Queens by a score of 8 to 2 Saturday on a field that was a sea of mud.

McGill now have only to beat Varsity next Saturday in Montreal to be returned champions of the intercollegiate for the first time since 1919.

TREMAIN MAKES DIFFERENCE The presence on the backfield for McGill of Ken Tremain made all the difference in the world to the Red team. Tremain caught almost faultlessly, outdistanced the injured Carter and the inexperienced Munro and was the brains of the McGill team.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—Unless Ottawa's accomplishment is seemingly impossible task of leading the Tiger in his last next Saturday, there is nothing left for the Senators but the lowliest position in the Inter-Provincial Rugby Union standing this season.

A weakened Toronto Argonauts squad successfully beat back the Roughriders' drive for third place in the Big Four when Saturday, when before a chilled gathering of 2,500 fans, the oarsmen battled the old capital rivals to a 1-1 draw over a mud-soaked grid.

Neither team showed any great power in straight line plunging due to the slippery footing and most of the efforts at opening the way for scores were made via the aerial route. Harris of Argos and Tubman of Ottawas providing a merry duo after the first quarter.

Both teams called their only scores in the first half, Harris kicking to the dead line for Toronto and Lynch scoring a rouge for the locals.

Montreal, Nov. 5.—McGill won the intercollegiate English Rugby championship here Saturday by defeating the University of Toronto fifteen to 9 to 0. McGill won the first contest of a two-game series 14-5, thus taking the round 17 to 5.

Fredericton, N.B., Nov. 5.—The University of New Brunswick retained the Inter-Collegiate English Rugby championship of Eastern Canada, when they defeated Montreal by six points to three Saturday. In the first half Adams of the university team fractured his jaw.

SAILORS RIDE OVER PIRATES FOR EASY WIN

McCONNAN GOES OVER A few minutes later, Ian McConnan took the ball across for the second try. Jones evened the count with a good kick.

As the half closed the College again took up the offensive with their forwards gaining plenty of ground on well-staged rushes, but the Wanderers' defence was stable and the aggressors were unable to score.

In the closing minutes of the game Cooper and Radford, the Wanderers, were carried from the field injured.

The game was one of the hardest of the season and both teams showed plenty of fight. Aubrey Walls refereed.

UNIVERSITY SWAMPS EX-HIGH The Ex-High team proved far too weak for the University School squad when they went down to a 43-0 defeat before the Mt. Tolmie boys on the last day of the field. The kick for extra points failed. Shortly after Le Marquand made another fine run to score the school's second try, and this time Tisdall converted. From the kick-off the university boys again forced play into their opponents' ground and Hammond went over for his second try, but it was not converted.

With the score standing 11-0 against the ex-high boys rallied and carried the ball into the University School's territory, but some fine forward play by Hammond broke up the attack and the school regained the lost ground.

The next try came when Le Marquand secured the ball from the loose and passed it to White, who went over for the fourth try.

New Fireworks Tricks Shown

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times London, Nov. 5.—Such names as "Electric Hare," the "Beacon," "Indian Marvel," "Electric Sparklers" and "Fairy Fountain" have been given to new departures in fireworks.

The "electric hare" rushes about the ground, propelled by a tail of brilliant fire, and finishes its career with a bang. The "beacon" burns, as its name suggests, rather more quietly, with a series of pretty color effects. The "Indian marvel" is a somewhat more elaborate firework, giving a remarkably beautiful fountain of fire six to sixteen feet in height. Another novelty is the "joke bomb," which explodes with a harmless report and distributes gifts all over the room.

clear from the words of Nerl in 1812: "In the time of the Emperor Tiberius was invented a way of making glass malleable, a thing afterwards lost, and to this day wholly unknown, for if such a thing were known without doubt it would be more esteemed for its beauty and incorruptibility than silver and gold."

Freight Liners Now Speed Up

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times London, Nov. 5.—The order which the Blue Star Line has placed with Cammell, Laird and Company, of Birkenhead for a new 10,000-ton cargo ship for their refrigerated meat service to South America is interesting as having another indication of the growing demands of the shipowners with regard to speed for cargo ships.

Many years ago the late Alfred Holt announced his belief that the majority of cargo steamers were too slow, and built his own tonnage according to that belief, but he did not get any great following. Since the war, however, the extent to which cargo liners have been "stealing" the tramp's normal business has brought about a steady increase, and fifteen-knot cargo liners are now quite common.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Rev. Dr. Clem Davies will give a dramatic sermon this evening at the Temple Hall at 8 o'clock.

Payment of accounts totaling $17,000 were authorized by the directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau to-day.

Dates for the November hearings in County Court were set by Judge Lampan in Chambers to-day. The list is a light one.

The tourist trade group of the Chamber of Commerce will hold a regular business meeting to-morrow at 12:15 p.m. in the Chamber Cafe.

The case against John Cannon, charged with driving the common danger was remanded in City Police Court this morning till November 7.

Harry Sweetman was fined $5 in City Police Court this morning for failing to produce his driver's license upon request of a police officer. A. E. Smart was fined $5 on a similar charge.

A reception to Premier Tolmie will be tendered by the McBride Club, Wednesday, November 14. The function will take the form of a banquet with an address by the Premier and a dance afterwards.

Members of Court Vancouver No. 3785, A.O.U., are reminded that the regular meeting to be held to-night, will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock, as after the business, a whist tournament will be featured.

Minor injuries were suffered by S. Gellathorpe, 2931 Fifth Street, when he was hit by an automobile driven by W. P. Robertson, 1343 Pembroke Street, while riding a bicycle north on Quadra Street, near Fort Street, Saturday.

"Immigration" is the subject of the address to be given by William T. Sifait before the Knights of the Round Table at their dinner meeting in the private dining-room of the Empress Hotel at 6 o'clock to-night.

Lindley Crease, K.C., will address the members of the Kiwanis Club at their weekly luncheon in the Empress Hotel ballroom to-morrow on "The League of Nations." Robert Webb will be the soloist, and the Kiwanis orchestra will also render selections.

A chimney fire at 1414 Pembroke Street required the attention of the fire department at 2:10 p.m. to-day. Two runs were made Sunday, one in answer to a false alarm from Hillside and Cook Streets at 2:45 a.m. and another to attend to a blazing awning at the corner of Government and Broughton Streets at 9:53 p.m.

Court Liberty, A.O.F., will hold an invitation dance on Friday next. Members are asked to be present for the meeting at 8 o'clock sharp so the dance may start half an hour later. Members have been asked to bring their friends and old members will be welcome. Tickets may be secured from the committee. The music will be rendered by Larmen's orchestra.

The sight of salmon fighting their way up the lower reaches of the Goldstream River drew many cars to the roadside on the Island Highway over the week-end. Seagulls flocked to the scene of the fish. Spawning time annually brings a "renewance" of the scene, which never fails to attract attention as the fish jostle and fight their way upstream, there to die.

Prof. E. M. Straight, Superintendent of the Experimental Station, Saanich, will be the speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Victoria Horticultural Society to-morrow night, at the City Hall, at 8 o'clock. This is the second meeting of the winter series of horticultural lectures, arranged by the society, and the topic will be "Some Phases of Garden Work." Anyone interested in horticulture is invited to the meeting.

The Carnival Committee of the Rotary Club has invited the inmates of the Protestant Orphanage and the Children's Aid to attend the Ice Carnival to be held in the Arena on Saturday night. J. North will take charge of the children at the function and the C. & C. Taxi Service Limited has offered the use of two sight-seeing cars to carry the youngsters to and from the Arena.

"Problems of the Maritime Provinces" is the subject chosen by William G. Ernst, M.P. of Bridgewater, Nova Scotia, for his address before the Canadian and Rotary Clubs at a combined luncheon of the two associations in the Empress Hotel on Thursday. The speaker represents the constituency of Queens-Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, and will be able to give first-hand information on the conditions existing in that province.

Following suggestions from R. J. Cromie of Vancouver, a recent visitor to the city, the directors of the Publicity Bureau decided to-day to take steps to secure signs in Beacon Hill Park on the Chinese wall and torpedos, and also to bring to the notice of the Oak Bay Council the condition of street lights in the uplands. In his letter Mr. Cromie pointed out that nearly half the lights in the uplands were broken, giving the district a desultory appearance. He also urged the erection of signs near the Lonsdale School and girls' school at Shawigan.

LAXATIVE FOR BABY THAT "STAYS DOWN"

Baby's tiny system rebels against castor oil and strong purgatives; but here's a medicine that just suits him. And it does the work quickly and so gently that Baby doesn't feel it. Fletcher's Castoria is soothing, cross, fretful babies and children to sleep, making the feverish, constipated, upset ones well and happy, in millions of homes to-day. Castoria is purely vegetable, harmless and endorsed by the medical profession. Avoid imitations. The Chas. H. Fletcher signature marks genuine Castoria. (Adv.)

HANDLEY WELLS, LOCAL ORGANIST, DIED YESTERDAY

Was Well Known in City's Musical Circles

Frederick Handley Wells, well-known Victoria musician and organist at the Dominion Theatre, died yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital, following an operation performed on Tuesday last.

The late Mr. Wells was born in Conisbrough, Yorkshire, England, forty-seven years ago, and had been resident of Victoria for the last eleven years. He is survived by his widow, one son and two daughters residing on Fell Street.

The remains will be sent to Vancouver to-night for cremation and to-morrow there will be a short funeral service at the crematory.

The passing of Mr. Wells will be felt by musical circles and by the many patrons of the Dominion Theatre, who have been accustomed to hearing his rendition of the best music. During his residence in Victoria, the late Mr. Wells has been in constant demand in concert work and oratorio, as he possessed a fine bass voice and great musical knowledge. As an organist he was considered one of the foremost in British Columbia.

CITY STUDIES GRAIN TRADE

Establishment of Grain Exchange Here is to Be Investigated

The establishing of a grain exchange in Victoria, in affiliation with other trading centres on the coast, may be necessary if port elevator facilities are to be utilized to their utmost. It was to be utilized to their utmost, it was stated by Mayor J. C. Pendray, on his return to the City Hall to-day, after a tour of investigation into grain handling on the mainland.

Mayor Pendray called on the Seattle Grain Exchange and Chamber of Commerce officials, in company with John Baxter, industrial commissioner, and investigated the steps Seattle took to promote business for its elevator. The new million-bushel elevator at Seattle is in full force, and a rapid extension of grain storage facilities is now contemplated there, stated the Mayor.

While in Seattle Mayor Pendray was advised by those in touch with the grain trade that the establishing of an exchange and the development of affiliations with other trading centres on the coast might be necessary here.

Simultaneously with the visit of the Mayor to Seattle representatives of the Chamber of Commerce went to Vancouver on a similar mission. Both bodies are co-operating in the study of what will be necessary here in support of the present facilities to enter the grain trade as a shipping point for part of the prairie crops. It is stated that a committee will report to the industrial committee at its next meeting.

Meanwhile the elevator of the Panama Pacific Grain Terminal is under construction and about ready for business. A car of grain loaded for Victoria on October 26 is expected any time now, and this will be used for testing purposes.

Tourist Trade Value to City Pointed Out

That the tourist trade to Victoria was like "picking money up in the street," and that nothing the city spends brings in such a large return as the money spent in this direction were expressions at the meeting of the Publicity Bureau directors to-day.

The directors considered figures showing Victoria benefited to the extent of about $3,000,000 from the tourist trade last season. The outlay for publicity purposes was about $21,500.

"Why should not this return be increased to around $13,000,000 or more?" asked President D. Leeming. It would not be a detriment to the city to spend $100,000, he suggested.

A communication from the Galveston Chamber of Commerce stated that in that town, a tax of one mill on the dollar was imposed for national advertising, which brought fine results. It was pointed out that Victoria's publicity expenditure amounts to about half a mill.

The regular monthly meeting of Esquimalt Liberal Association will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Liberal headquarters, corner of Government and Broughton Streets. A large attendance is requested as plans for winter activities will be discussed.

Judge Carey of Hoboken Says Al Smith's Popularity May Put Him Over in Presidential Fight

New Purchasing Agent Assumes Office at Parliament Buildings

North China May Join Nationalists To Bring About Unity

"If a Democrat can carry the United States presidential election, Al Smith 'certainly will.'" This opinion on to-morrow's election in the United States was expressed this morning by Judge Thomas Carey, of Hoboken, New Jersey, a passenger on board the steamship President Madison from the Orient. "Of Al Smith's popularity in the East more particularly in New York State, there is no doubt and, in sizing up developments of the last few weeks it is probable that he will carry the Middle West and the South."

Judge Carey, who is a police magistrate in Hoboken, believes that the Democrats have a better chance in this election than they have ever had. He looks for Smith to beat Hoover, he says, expected to gain the presidency of the United States by means of a porch campaign, but the determined fight put up by Smith and his supporters forced him out into a public speaking campaign, which he dislikes. Hoover, he claims, is an organizer, but no speaker.

NEW PURCHASING AGENT ARRIVES

Victor A. Rollins, the newly-appointed purchasing agent for the Province, to-day registered at the Empress Hotel from Vancouver. Mr. Rollins has already taken over his new duties at the Parliament Buildings but is staying at the Empress pending the location of a permanent residence in the city.

MANCHURIA FAVORS NATIONALIST AIMS

Manchuria will soon link up its fortunes with the cause of the Nationalists, despite opposition of the Japanese, according to R. W. Whitcomb, of the National City Bank, of New York, at Shanghai, here to-day on board the President Madison from China. He is en route to New York, accompanied by his wife.

Chiang Kai Shek, he says, is strongly entrenching himself in the Nationalist Party by his consistent efforts in bringing about cohesion among the various factions.

There is a great improvement in business in China since the Nationalists took over the control of Peking and the coast ports are anticipating a steady increase in trade now that some sort of stable government exists, Mr. Whitcomb states.

PROSPERITY COMING IN JAPAN

"Just checking over the old business and making up the books," explained O. J. Jorgensen, treasurer of the British Columbia Pulp and Paper Company Ltd., of Vancouver, after he had made his last registered departure from the city this morning from the inbound liner President Madison.

"If the yen holds good, there is going to be an era of great prosperity and development in Japan," declared Mr. Jorgensen.

"And Canada is going to participate to its extent in the increased trade with Japan."

Driver Victim of Peculiar Mishap

In a peculiar accident which happened almost outside the police station this morning, R. D'Avigne of Royal Oak was badly bruised about the cheek and eye, and was given first aid at the station.

Mr. D'Avigne, driving a wagon loaded with hay, was proceeding across the weighing scales at the public market, just east of police headquarters, when one of the rear wheels caught in an iron railing at the side. The impact loosed the king bolt underneath the vehicle and Mr. D'Avigne was thrown forward against the front of the wagon.

Driving Cases Are Adjourned

Two cases of driving automobiles to the common danger were adjourned in City Police Court this morning until to-morrow.

Anthony Durham was charged with an offence on Cook Street on November 3, and L. C. Masten was alleged to have driven to the common danger on Yates Street on October 26.

Neither of the defendants entered pleas.

CHIEF JUSTICE HUNTER RETURNS FROM EUROPE

Chief Justice Gordon Hunter, recently returned from a six months' tour of Europe, heard a brief list of Chamber applications in the Supreme Court this morning. His Lordship will preside for the next week, it is stated, before returning to his home at Shawigan Lake. The Chief Justice left Victoria in May for an extended visit to the continent and returned last week via the Panama Canal.

B.C. AIRWAYS TO MEET TO-MORROW

Ernest Eves, president of the B.C. Airways Limited, announced to-day that the directors of the company would hold a meeting to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which it is expected the future activities of the company will be discussed. The whole question of aerial service out of Victoria will come under review as well as the question of the type of planes to be used.

DIRECT WIRE LINKS CITY WITH ALBERTA

B.C. Telephone Company to Open New Service To-morrow

To-morrow an all-Canadian telephone circuit will be opened between Victoria and Calgary, giving an improved telephone service between British Columbia and Alberta, both from the standpoint of speed and transmission. The line, which has involved the stringing of wire for 500 miles in British Columbia, will be a link in the proposed all-Canadian transcontinental telephone route, a project on which the telephone systems of Canada are working.

Hitherto the potential business has not warranted overcoming the construction difficulties involved in closing the gap to the Alberta boundary, but the steadily-growing business between the two provinces has finally changed the situation. Up to the present all Coast-Alberta telephone business has had to be routed by way of Seattle, Washington and Helena, Montana. Under this arrangement a circuit has had to be "built up" out of three shorter circuits which have been united together by operators in Seattle and Helena, but when the all-Canadian circuit is opened a through line will be available from Victoria to Calgary. This will mean a faster service and better transmission. The circuit will be the longest in use in British Columbia.

The construction of the line to Alberta is one of the major items in the British Columbia Telephone Company's large programme for expanding its long-distance business.

The company operates exchanges from the Coast to the Okanagan Valley. There it has long-distance offices only, the Okanagan Telephone Company handling the local business. In the West Kootenay district the B.C. Telephone Company has a string of exchanges, while in the adjoining East Kootenay territory an associated company operates.

The Riddle of Siwa

By DIXON KAYE

Author of "Dr. Burney's Greatest Case."

When Prince Ahmed left his brother he sought Ibrahim and having given him some directions, said:

"Now we will go and visit Miss Manders in the town; Seymour Barham is no doubt there before us."

They went down the incline to the "Tube," and in a few minutes were in the town.

"I have had no opportunity of seeing this young lady," Prince Ahmed remarked. "I am very anxious to congratulate her upon the happy ending to her adventure. That done, I have nothing more to do, and shall go straight to my wife and children."

"I have arranged all that," Ibrahim answered. "Very little time shall be lost in carrying out your wishes."

"My wife and children," announced the Prince, "are coming to Cairo to meet you."

"Then to Cairo we will go," answered Ibrahim.

As they expected, Seymour was with his future bride, explaining his absence in the morning.

The Prince greeted her affectionately, to her surprise kissing her on both cheeks.

"Your future husband has done me a great service," he said. "He has saved my life. I claim the privilege of saluting you as one of my children."

As he spoke, his eyes caught sight of the jewels spread out upon the table in Eva's room.

"What are these?" he asked.

"These are jewels brought to me by the Princess," Eva answered.

The Prince's face was troubled.

"Do not keep them," he said. "They will only bring you misfortune. Let Ibrahim take them away, sell them, and give the money to the poor of Cairo, of all denominations."

He signed to Ibrahim, who came forward bearing a golden bowl covered with cloth of gold, as were the chests in the Treasury House by the Lake.

The Prince removed the cloth of gold cover, and revealed the bowl full of uncut diamonds, rubies, emeralds, and sapphires of great size.

"Take these, dear lady," he said, "as a wedding present from my wife and me."

Eva was astounded at the display of jewels, uncut though they were; she knew them to be of immense value. She could not sufficiently thank the Prince, but stood with the heavy bowl in her hands, amazed.

Meanwhile, Ibrahim was gathering up the Princess's jewels, setting them ready for sale in Cairo; he seemed, however, to have a repulsion against touching them.

He had finished at last just as Eva murmured her last thanks to the Prince.

Ibrahim turned to Seymour.

"I am commanded by His Highness Prince Abdullah," he said, "to prepare a caravan for you, and to load it with two thousand ingots of gold, the reward which he promised you should you succeed in rescuing his brother from a terrible fate. This caravan I shall have under my own care, and I will deliver the ingots in your name to the Bank of Egypt. No doubt you will give the Bank orders to sell them and to invest the money in the way you wish."

"Two thousand ingots!" repeated Seymour. "Why, it is an immense fortune!"

"Abdullah, the High Priest, intended that it should be," he answered. "He gave me minute instructions."

"And how will you transport this great sum to Cairo?" the Englishman asked.

"By a caravan of specially selected camels," Ibrahim answered.

"But are you not afraid of thieves?" Seymour continued.

"No."

Seymour advanced close to Ibrahim.

"Nor of the Princess?" he whispered. "Her wealth is beyond count, and she would care little for such a trifle as my caravan. No; in addition to her enormous riches in specie, she possesses rice fields in the Delta, which I manage, extending for many miles."

"No, but for revenge," suggested Seymour, "would she not attempt to seize this gold with her Bodyguard Regiment before it reaches Cairo?"

"She will make no such attempt," Ibrahim answered. "Her Bodyguard is disbanded, and their arms seized. If this had not been done, the Bodyguard received such a lesson from our machine guns that they will not want to fight again for some time. No, your gold is perfectly safe, more especially as I carry with me to Cairo five hundred of my trustiest Arabs well armed with magazine rifles and machine guns. But I have something more interesting to tell you. Sheikh Ibrahim continued. "Miss Manders, the Prince, and you, Barham, will proceed to Cairo by air."

"That is splendid!" cried the Prince, who was sitting by Eva's side on the divan, the bowl of jewels between them for Eva's admiration. "I shall see my dear wife and children sooner than I anticipated."

"I have a friend," said Ibrahim, "in the Flying Corps at Port Said, who is prepared to call for you at half-past six to-morrow morning. You must be ready to start then, and you will reach Cairo in good time for lunch."

Eva was aglow with happiness; the caravan look had disappeared from her lovely face; she had now something to contemplate, but their future happiness and the great fortune which had come to them.

CHAPTER XXXII

Osmán and Seymour strolled away from the house in the town in which the Prince was preparing for her journey. Both looked back at the Pyramid in the far distance.

"I suppose I am looking my last upon the Pyramid," Seymour asked.

"Yes," replied Osmán. "From this time forth the Pyramid, or rather the Tomb of Tommus, will be a sealed book to you."

"And the life there will go on as usual?"

"Yes," replied Osmán, "the life will go on as usual, except that I shall not be there."

"You will not be there?" asked Seymour in astonishment.

"The two walked on in silence side by side, but Osmán did not speak. Presently he stopped and turned to Seymour.

"I suppose it would be no news to you to hear that I am an Englishman?" he asked.

Seymour looked at him, amazed.

"You speak English so perfectly," he answered, "that I am not surprised. But what on earth brought you here?"

Osmán smiled.

"Would you like to hear?" he asked.

"Certainly, I should," was the reply. They walked on through the town and out on to the desert; they were quite alone.

"I shall surprise you at the commencement," proceeded Osmán, "by telling you that when the Englishman I landed at Acre under Sir Sydney Smith in 1798 to fight Napoleon, I was the Colonel of an English regiment of cavalry. I took part in the campaign and was present at the battle of the Pyramids. I was a volunteer, with the Mamelukes, joining in their glorious but ineffective charges against the French squares. That brought me into contact with the Pyramid of Siwa. I heard the wonderful story of it."

"But," interjected Seymour, "that was in 1798, as you say."

"That was the year in which I served in Egypt. Can you imagine me in my brass helmet, with a long black horse-hair plume, as they were worn in those days, and my scarlet coat and gold epaulettes? I was a Dragoon."

Seymour looked at his tall, stately figure.

"Yes, I can imagine it quite well, and picture you before me in just such a dress," was the answer.

"The fame of the Pyramid had spread to our mess when I was returned to Acre," continued Osmán. "It became the subject of bets. I foolishly accepted a bet for a hundred pounds that I would enter the wonderful Pyramid within a month. I made up my mind to do just as you did; I came here in my uniform, for I had no other clothing, and that uniform exists in the Pyramid to the present day. I found the entrance after great diffi-

Bribery Inquiry At Los Angeles

Los Angeles, Nov. 5.—New evidence, described as startling by investigators, will be placed this week before the Los Angeles County grand jury, whose inquiry already has been in bribery indictments against District Attorney Asa Keyes and seven others.

Among the witnesses programmed to appear is Miss Beulah Wilson, who acted as bodyguard for Lorraine E. Wiseman-Sheffield at the time the latter was a witness in the conspiracy case against Asa Keyes and seven others.

Defendants named in the grand jury indictments who are to be arraigned to-morrow were reported to-day in conference with their attorneys. Two of the indicted men, Ben Gettoff and his son, Dave, indicted "en-blois" in the alleged "fixing" charges, principally in the Julian Petroleum Corporation case, were arraigned to-day and pleaded not guilty. Others indicted besides Keyes and Riemer are Jacob Berman and Ed Rosenberg, Julian Petroleum defendants; Rosenberg's brother, Jack, and A. L. Lasker, alleged to have paid for "fixing" of embalmment charges.

LONG FLIGHT MADE

Sourabaya, Java, Nov. 5.—Completing a water jump of 1,500 miles from Windham, Australia, the Spirit of Australia, arrived here to-day en route to England. The fliers, Captain Frank Hurley and Flying Officer Moir, intend to start for Singapore, Straits Settlement, at dawn to-morrow.

A Typical Conversation Around Town To-day

Tom: "Say, Dick, have you tried this new Satin-Glo Clear?"

Dick: "No. Is it any good?"

Tom: "Good? Why, man, it's a knock-out! Do you remember our dining room floor—all scratched and worn—the wife said she never could keep it looking nice, but wouldn't let me varnish it because of the trouble of keeping the kiddies off until the varnish was hard."

Dick: "That's always been the trouble, why I—"

Tom: "Yes—BEEN the trouble—but that's past tense now, Dick. I got a tin of this new Satin-Glo Clear and when the children were in bed, I finished both floor and woodwork. Easy? Why it was like falling off a log."

Dick: "I'll bet the youngsters wrecked it next morning."

Tom: "Not a chance—why that floor was as dry as a bone long before they were up (and that's early enough, believe me!) Naturally they ran all over for devilment, but it didn't show a mark."

Dick: "Was the wife pleased?"

Tom: "Why she was simply delighted—said it was the best job I'd done for ages—made the room look like a million dollars, and it stands the wear and is unaffected by cold or hot water."

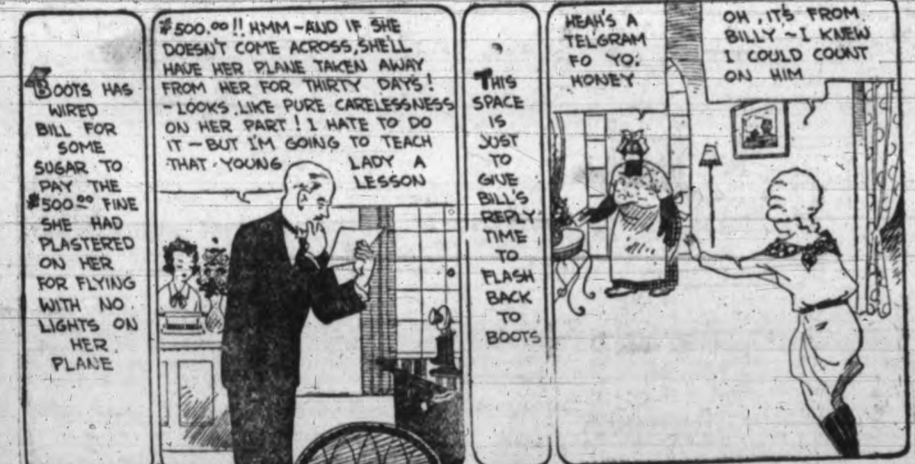

Dick: "Seems I'll have to be getting busy myself—can't be behind you, my boy—where do you get it?"

Tom: "I bought mine at Smith's but most hardware and paint stores are selling it—and if my experience counts—it's going to go fast."

Dick: "Thanks for the tip—I'll drop in at Jones' on my way home—he sells most Bapco Products."

MOTHERS AND THEIR CHILDREN

One Mother says: My two children aged ten and twelve years have lots of fun shopping from the advertisements in the magazines. They decide what products they would like to try and as most of the firms offer a trial package for ten cents, the children have many things from which to select. They use their own money for this so they decide carefully what they really most want. They always submit their choice to me before sending for anything, for undoubtedly they might occasionally make an unwise selection. They are learning real values and worthwhile products from this way of shopping and having lots of fun, too.

C.P.R. Liner Bucks Great Waves on Passage From Victoria to Yokohama

The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Canada, which left here Friday morning for China and Japan, ran into the teeth of the great storm now raging on the Pacific, according to Capt. W. O. All was going well, Capt. Kohlmeister said, and the storm is not expected to hinder the Canada's progress. She is already twelve hours behind schedule, having left here Friday morning in scheduled time.
